

Task 1

Put a check mark next to the reasons that someone would call 911. Discuss the statements. Next, answer the question.

1. There is a fire. ✓P
2. You witnessed a burglary. ✓
3. Your brother took your cell phone.
4. There is a serious car accident. ✓
5. You witnessed an attack. ✓
6. Your food was not delivered on time.
7. Someone is choking. ✓
8. There was a kidnapping. ✓
9. A store didn't have your correct shoe size.
10. You saw someone pass out. ✓

Have you ever witnessed or been involved in any of these emergencies before? What happened? student's idea(s)

Task 2

Choose a compound relative pronoun from the box to fill in the blanks. Some words are used more than once. Next, answer the question.

whoever / whatever / wherever / whenever / whichever / however

1. She locks the door whenever she leaves the house.
2. Tell whoever comes to go away.
3. Here are two books. Whichever one you choose, you are sure to enjoy it.
4. However much he works out, he is still overweight.
5. I bring my pepper spray with me wherever I go.
6. Whatever I ate yesterday is still hurting my stomach.
7. Here is a black pen and a red pen. Take whichever one you need.
8. However long it takes, they will not give up.

What would you do if you needed to call 911 but your phone battery was dead? student's idea(s)

Task 3

Listen to the audio and answer the questions.

1. Who calls 911, and what is the emergency?
George calls 911 because his friend collapsed in the grass.
2. What information does the 911 operator need first?
The 911 operator needs to know George's name and the age of his friend who collapsed.
3. What does the operator tell George to do? What was the result?
The operator tells George to check his friend's pulse to see if he is breathing. He was breathing.
4. Who is coming to help? When will they arrive?
First responders were sent to help in an ambulance and will arrive in five minutes.
5. The operator says, "you are in safe hands". What do you think this means?
"You are in safe hands" means you are looked after by a reliable person, and there is no risk.
6. Why do you think it is important to stay on the line with a 911 operator?
student's idea(s)

Task 4

Answer the questions relating to the topic.

1. What are some important things to remember when calling 911? student's idea(s).
2. What information is not very important to share when calling 911? Why shouldn't you include all the little details? student's idea(s).
3. Have you ever been involved in an emergency in which someone had to give CPR or perform the Heimlich maneuver? student's idea(s).
4. If you hear someone say, "hang on for dear life", what do you think they mean? student's idea(s).
"Hang on for dear life" is used when you are in a dangerous situation, and you need to grip something firmly, so you do not fall.
5. Why do you think the emergency number in the United States is called "9-1-1"? What is the emergency number in your country? student's idea(s).
"9-1-1" was chosen by the FCC and AT&T because it is short, unique, easily remembered, and be dialed quickly.